Fowlers Hollow State Park

The 104-acre Fowlers Hollow State Park is in a narrow valley created by Fowlers Hollow Run. The park is on the edge of Tuscarora State Forest at the intersection of several multi-use trails. The campground of the park is a good base for adventures into a huge tract of public land.

Directions

From PA 274 in Blain, turn south at the east end of town, then drive one-quarter of a mile. Turn right after the bridge. The park can also be reached from PA 274 west of New Germantown on Upper Buck Ridge Road.

Recreational Opportunities

PICNICKING: Picnic tables and a limited number of grills are available in a wooded setting. The one picnic pavilion may be reserved up to 11 months in advance for a fee. If unreserved, the picnic pavilion is free on a first-come, first-served basis.

CAMPING: Twelve campsites with electric hookups and six walk-in tent sites are available from late March to mid-December. All campsites have a picnic table and fire ring. There are flush toilets, water spigot and sanitary dump station, but no showers. Pets are permitted.

MOUNTAIN BIKING and HORSEBACK RIDING: Fowlers Hollow is a trailhead for Alfalfa and Beasont trails, which are extensive trails in Tuscarora State Forest. Mountain biking is also permitted on park roads.

SNOWMOBILING: Fowlers Hollow has parking and a restroom. The park is a trailhead to the 46-mile trail network in Tuscarora State Forest. The Tuscarora Trail is nearby. Be sure to acquire a Tuscarora State Forest Public use map before hiking on forest lands.

FISHING: Fowlers Hollow Run traverses the park and provides trout fishing. The stream receives a mid-May stocking of brook trout.

Hunting: Fowlers Hollow State Park is a trailhead for a variety of hiking trails within, and connecting to, the extensive trail system in Tuscarora State Forest. The Tuscarora Trail is nearby. Be sure to acquire a Tuscarora State Forest Public use map before hiking on forest lands.
