CODORUS STATE PARK

The 1,380-acre Codorus State Park is in the rolling hills of southern York County. The 2,750-foot-long lake is 260 acres of shoreline and a stop sign for migrating waterfowl and songbirds. The lake is also popular with boaters and nonboaters. Anglers love the lake for warmwater fishing opportunities.

 Spend the Day **

HUNTING AND FIREARMS:

Hunting is limited to the use of three types of firearms and archery equipment used for hunting may be uncased in the open land surrounding the lake for 30 days after the close of hunting seasons. In areas not open to hunting, firearms and archery equipment shall be stored in the enclosed vehicle or enclosed vehicle trailer. Exceptions include law enforcement officers and individuals with a valid Pennsylvania Peace Officer’s License. Persons are authorized to carry a firearm on their person while fishing or hunting.

ICE FISHING:

The lake provides a great opportunity for fishing during your visit. The 2.75-mile-long lake has seven boat ramps or access areas for ice anglers: Ice Fishing will not be allowed.

TREASURY: 5 Lakes, semi-advanced fishing

The 2.75-mile-long Lake Marburg has seven boat ramps or access areas for ice anglers: Ice Fishing will not be allowed.

BOAT RENTALS:

The Codorus Lake has a full-service boat rental available through the Oar House located at the Swimming Area. The boat rental is available for motorboats, canoes, and kayaks. The Oar House also offers the use of a fishing license for all open water fishing on Lake Marburg. All boats are equipped with a fishing license. The boat rental is available at the Swimming Area.

HISTORY:

The American Revolutionary War. Major John Hanover built a great impact on the United States. When Europeans reached the land that is now Massachusetts, it was occupied by the Massachusetts tribe. In 1620, the Pilgrims arrived in Plymouth on the Mayflower. The Mayflower Compact was signed by the Pilgrims, establishing a form of government.

Furnace

Mary Ann Furnace Stadium was built in 1752. Mary Ann Furnace is located on the eastern shore of Lake Marburg. The furnace was operated by the Pennsylvania Furnace Company, a division of the Pennsylvania Furnace Company. The furnace was operated by the Pennsylvania Furnace Company.

Take the Night

Codorus State Park has many different habitats: forests, fields, wetlands, and a lake. The lake is a great place to see wildlife, especially waterfowl. The lake is also a great place to watch the moon rise over the lake. The lake is a great place to see wildlife, especially waterfowl. The lake is also a great place to watch the moon rise over the lake as the bats fly over the lake.

Wildlife Watching

Codorus State Park has many different habitats: forests, fields, wetlands, and a lake. The lake is a great place to see wildlife, especially waterfowl. The lake is also a great place to watch the moon rise over the lake as the bats fly over the lake.