Hiking: 12.9 miles of trails

Chambersburg Water Line Trail: 6.7 miles, easiest hiking
Starting on the trailhead, the trail passes through the park near the swimming pool and ends at the Old Ferry Road. The trail is well-marked with white blazes and provides a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Thaddeus Stevens Historic Trail: 2.7 miles, most difficult hiking
This trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Thaddeus Stevens house. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a glimpse into the history of the area.

Chambersburg Water Line Trail: 3.4 miles, easiest hiking
This trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Chambersburg Water Line. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Ramble Trail: 6.4 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Ramble Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Three Valley Trail: 2.2 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Three Valley Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Appalachian Trail: 0.7 miles, easiest hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Appalachian Trail. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Chinquapin Trail: 1.0 mile, easiest hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Chinquapin Trail. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Piney Run Trail: 1.6 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Piney Run Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Thaddeus Stevens Historic Trail: 2.7 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting on the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Thaddeus Stevens house. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Chambersburg Water Line Trail: 3.4 miles, easiest hiking
Starting on the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Chambersburg Water Line. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Ramble Trail: 6.4 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Ramble Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Three Valley Trail: 2.2 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Three Valley Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Appalachian Trail: 0.7 miles, easiest hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Appalachian Trail. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Chinquapin Trail: 1.0 mile, easiest hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Chinquapin Trail. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Piney Run Trail: 1.6 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Piney Run Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Thaddeus Stevens Historic Trail: 2.7 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting on the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Thaddeus Stevens house. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Chambersburg Water Line Trail: 3.4 miles, easiest hiking
Starting on the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Chambersburg Water Line. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Ramble Trail: 6.4 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Ramble Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Three Valley Trail: 2.2 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Three Valley Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Appalachian Trail: 0.7 miles, easiest hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Appalachian Trail. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Chinquapin Trail: 1.0 mile, easiest hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Chinquapin Trail. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Piney Run Trail: 1.6 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Piney Run Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Thaddeus Stevens Historic Trail: 2.7 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting on the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Thaddeus Stevens house. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Chambersburg Water Line Trail: 3.4 miles, easiest hiking
Starting on the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Chambersburg Water Line. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Ramble Trail: 6.4 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Ramble Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Three Valley Trail: 2.2 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Three Valley Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Appalachian Trail: 0.7 miles, easiest hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Appalachian Trail. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Chinquapin Trail: 1.0 mile, easiest hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Chinquapin Trail. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Piney Run Trail: 1.6 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Piney Run Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Thaddeus Stevens Historic Trail: 2.7 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting on the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Thaddeus Stevens house. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Chambersburg Water Line Trail: 3.4 miles, easiest hiking
Starting on the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Chambersburg Water Line. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Ramble Trail: 6.4 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Ramble Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Three Valley Trail: 2.2 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Three Valley Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Appalachian Trail: 0.7 miles, easiest hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Appalachian Trail. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Chinquapin Trail: 1.0 mile, easiest hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more scenic and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Chinquapin Trail. The trail is marked with white blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.

Piney Run Trail: 1.6 miles, most difficult hiking
Starting from the trailhead, this trail is more challenging and leads to a highlight of the park, the historic Piney Run Trail. The trail is marked with yellow blazes and offers a scenic view of the surrounding area.