Creating a backpacking reservation at Laurel Ridge State Park on the PA State Parks website:

Go to PA State Parks website at  www.visitPAParks.com

From the home page click on the reservations icon:

- Now you are on the Reserve America website, the company that handles reservations for Pennsylvania State Parks. Note: the image rotates and may not always appear as the one shown below.
- If you already have an account with Reserve America then proceed to the instructions below. If you do not have an account with Reserve America then you may want to create an account, or just continue with the instruction below, but know that when you try to make the reservation you will have to stop and make an account at that time. It is not difficult to make an account.
- In the Reserve a Spot fields Enter LAUREL RIDGE STATE PARK in the Location box
- In the Interested In dropdown, select PERMITS & WILDERNESS
- Select SEARCH
On the next screen, Laurel Ridge State Park appears as the first option for reservations.

Select the CHECK AVAILABILITY button

WARNING!

Backpack Camping is available in Pennsylvania at Laurel Ridge, Moraine, Oil Creek, and Raccoon Creek State Parks. These locations have developed designated areas to hike and camp along the trail. There are no modern facilities on these trails. Visitors will need to carry their gear with them, if unsure, and need specific information on the hiking or amenities, or have additional questions, please call the appropriate park prior to making reservations.

River Camping is provided in Pennsylvania at Cook Forest/Clear Creek State Park Complex and is developed for visitors to camp at designated campsites along the Clarion River. Access to these sites is by water only and visitors are required to carry all gear with them in the kayak/canoe.

I am an experienced backpacker or river camper!

Canoe/Kayak Camping along the Wild and Scenic Clarion River is available at Cook Forest State Park. Two sites are available up river with access to nearby restrooms and shower houses at Clear Creek State Park. This area is located on river left just downstream of the main camping area at Clear Creek State Park. These additional sites are on river right approximately two miles downstream of Cooksburg. This area is designated primitive with no modern facilities. Camping on state lands in the Clarion Wild and Scenic River corridor is only permitted on designated campsites. For more information please call Cook Forest State Park at 814-744-8407.

Laurel Ridge State Park is home to the 70-mile Laurel Highlands Hiking Trail. It is a linear trail that extends from Ohiopyle State Park in the south to near Johnstown in the north. There are eight overnight areas shelter areas located approximately every 6-10 miles along the trail. For detailed trail information, water availability, and directions to trailheads and parking areas, contact the park at 724-455-3744.
This screen shows you what is available and what is not. If you are not logged in at this point you will need to do so before you continue. You can build your reservation from here.
Once you select the shelter/tent space that you want, select the Add to Itinerary button. A file tab will pop up at the bottom of your screen. When you have all of your shelters/tent spaces selected you can Book the reservation.
PLEASE NOTE – on the Permit Order Details Page:

- Double check the dates of your stay along with the reserved shelter areas.
- Vehicle & Parking information is REQUIRED. Please give a description of the vehicle, plate number if available and where you plan to park each vehicle.
- Direction of Travel is REQUIRED. Please note – the trail runs NORTH & SOUTH, not east or west. You will need to select NORTH OR SOUTH, depending on your itinerary.
- Emergency Contact is REQUIRED. Please name someone that will NOT be on the trip with you.

THE LHHT RUNS NORTH & SOUTH. PLEASE SELECT NORTH OR SOUTH, DEPENDING ON YOUR ITINERARY.
